Dear Dr Mullings

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST: NOTICE OF LIABILITY TO PAY A CHARGE

I refer to your request of 3 December 2014 to the Hon Peter Dutton MP, for access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) documents in relation to the full release of the final report of the National Mental Health Commission on the national review of mental health programmes and services.

You were advised on 10 December 2014 that your request had been transferred to the Department of Health (the Department).

The decision maker has determined that, in accordance with section 29 of the FOI Act, that you are liable to pay a charge in respect of your request.

Under paragraph 29(1)(f) of the FOI Act you are required to notify the Department in writing within 30 days after this notice was given to you one of the following:

- that you agree to pay the charge;
- that you wish to make a contention that the charge has been wrongly assessed or should be reduced or not imposed; or if you wish to contend please see further details below.
- that you withdraw your request.

Preliminary Assessment

In accordance with paragraph 29(1)(b) of the FOI Act a preliminary assessment of the charge is $1,744.92. This has been calculated as follows:

search and retrieval time (including time spent locating relevant files and collating relevant documents contained on those files)	1.22 hours @ $15.00 per hour	$18.25
decision making time (including time spent examining the documents, considering exemptions, undertaking consultation, writing the decision and preparing any documents for release, excluding the first 5 hours of decision making time)	86.33 hours @ $20.00 per hour	$1,726.67
TOTAL		$1,744.92

Deposit

The decision maker has also decided that you are required to pay a deposit. As the preliminary assessment is greater than $100.00 a deposit of 25% is required, this being $436.23.

Payment of a deposit will be taken as your authority for us to proceed with the processing of your request and your agreement to pay the full charge in which case you will become liable to the Commonwealth for the full cost of the processing charge. Your deposit payment (cheque or credit card) should be sent to either of the following:

Contention that the charge has been wrongly assessed, should be reduced or not imposed

Under the FOI Act you have the right to contend that the charge has been wrongly assessed, should be reduced or not imposed. If you choose to make such a contention the matters that I am required by subsection 29(5) of the FOI Act to take into account include:

- (a) whether the payment of the charge, or part of it, would cause financial hardship to you or the person on whose behalf the application was made; and
- (b) whether the giving of access to the document[s] in question is in the general public interest or in the interest of a substantial section of the public.

Timeframe for providing you with a decision

The date for providing you with a decision will be later than that previously advised because processing of your request is suspended from the date you receive this notice. Counting of the 30 calendar days will resume when either you pay a deposit or any contention about the charge has been resolved.
